The members of the Friends Guild were entertained by Mrs Wing in the Church parson on the afternoon of Dec. 11, 1912.

The Pres. opened the meeting with devotional exercises and also read a most interesting Bible story written by Rufus M. Jones.

The treasurers report was read and accepted. The amount in the treasury at that reading being $49.26

It was voted that a bill$ due the work Com. be paid. On account of illness, no report was read and Ethel Gibson was elected Sec pro. tem. The chairman of the entertainment Committee reported a few articles remaining from the sale, which must be disposed of before a financial statement could be made. These articles were attractively arranged on a table in the church parlor and sales were made during the P.M. It was decided to show these goods in like manner after the entertainment held in the church that evening.

Mrs Chester Smith sent thanks for flowers sent by the Guild. The work for the P.M. consisted of sewing on protection aprons.

There were 11 members and one guest present. Mrs Wing served refreshments at 4.30 P.M. meeting adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs Kelly 30 Nightingale St. on New Year Day.

Dec. 11, 1912

Mrs Kelly entertained the members of the Guild at her home on Jan 1/13.

Our president opened the meeting with devotional exercises reading from the 90th Psalm and suggesting that the 16th verse "Let thy work appear unto thy servants and thy glory unto their children" be kept in mind throughout the year.

The treas. report was read and accepted a balance of 3. 20 remaining in the treasury.

On account of the continued unavoidable absence of our Secretary, Ethel Gibson was appointed Sec. pro. tem. with instructions to so act until Mrs Haugens recovery.

The Sec. pro. tem read the Report of the previous meeting which was accepted.

A Nominating Com. Consisting of Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Howland & Mrs. Gibson was appointed to suggest the names of officers for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Tyler Townsend reported a consultation with Miss Miller Home Missionary for the Immanuel Congregational Church, in regards to work for worthy families.

It was decided that Mrs. Townsend should decide on one family in need of assistance and co-operating with Mrs. Ayer, prepare work for the next meeting.

It was decided that material be obtained and a Santa Claus quilt made and presented to the S. School for their use in the Annual Entertainment.

An Appeal for bedding was made by the White Cross Sisters whose home has recently suffered from fire loss. It was decided to respond with - a pair of blankets for this cause the cost of which not to exceed $3.35.

In accordance with a discussion held at a previous meeting when it was decided to purchase some needed article for the parsonage each year, the members voted that this years gift from the Guild should be a rug - not to exceed $25. in price. A Committee consisting of Mrs Thomas, Miss Gould & Mrs Paul Townsend was appointed to select the rug and blankets.

The Sec. pro. tem was instructed to send New Years Greetings to our beloved Secretary Mrs Adelaide H. Hanger who has been absent from our meetings on account of illness and whose hearty co-operation we greatly miss.
The work for the P.M. consisted of sewing on daintily colored clusters. There were 12 members and 3 guests present Mrs Kelly assisted by two of her guests served refreshments.
After which the meeting adj.
to meet at the home of Mrs Gibson 64 Seaver St. on Tues. Jan. 17th 1913.

The change in date from the regular meeting being necessary on account of quarterly meeting being called for that date.

Thos J. Gibson

The members of the Friends Guild were entertained by Mrs Gibson at her home on Jan. 14th 1913

The president opened the meeting with scripture reading and prayer.

The Secretary's report was read and accepted

The Treasurers report was read and accepted

The amount in the treasury at that time being $3.95

A letter was received from Sister Helen of the White Cross Rescue Society of America expressing appreciation for the blankets sent by the Guild. Mrs Thomas expressed her approval and pleasure at the selection of the rug placed in the parsonage by the Guild.

It was decided that as the next meeting was the time for the Annual Election of Officers, it would be well to hold a supper in the church following a late meeting to which all members should be privileged to invite one guest. Miss Gould Mrs Thomas and Mrs Steele were appointed to assist the Social Com. at that time.

Mrs Tyler Townsend reported visiting a family in destitute circumstances where help would be greatly appreciated. The family consists of six motherless children whose ages range from 2-15 yrs. all of whom are greatly in need of clothing. Several members offered clothing ready for immediate use and Mrs Tyler Townsend was asked to supervise the distribution of the same.

 Mrs Thomas reported the total receipts of the sale held jointly with the W. F. M. S. to be $149.75. after the expenses had been deducted the amount rec'd by each society was $69.07.
 Instead of the regular period being devoted to sewing the ladies listened to a talk by Mrs Lou Sykes from Central Village.
 She described the work of the ladies society in that church & laid stress on the importance of regular meetings.

There were 17 members and 3 guests present. Refreshments were served after which meeting adjourned to meet at the Friends Church at 4.30 P.M. Jan. 29, 1913.

Ethel F. Gibson

The members of the Guild held a meeting in the Church parlor at 4.30 P.M. Jan. 29 1913.

The president opened the meeting with scripture reading and prayer.

The secretary's report was read and accepted.

The treasurer's report was read and accepted.

The amount in the treasury at that time being $48.20 The annual reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and accepted.

Mrs. Tyler Townsend reported that the State Board of Charities had taken charge of part of the family previously helped by the Guild and a discussion followed as to the dispensing of certain funds paid Mrs Townsend for that purpose. It was decided to take no action in the matter until Mrs Townsend had investigated the needs of the remaining members of the family and reported on other cases demanding attention. A card was read from Mrs Wanger expressing her appreciation of the hand painted plate sent by the Guild and the W.F.M.S. as a souvenir of the Sale. Our Secretary gave much thought and energy to planning and working for this sale and her absence on account of illness was greatly felt - and regretted.

Mrs Gould reported the following list of Officers and Committees as those recommended by the nominating Com.

President - Mrs Thomas
Vice Pres. Mrs Chester Smith
Secretary Mrs Wanger

Treasurer Mrs Meader
Flower Com. Mrs Wing & Mrs Jones
Cutting Committee -

Mrs Ager, Mrs Cook, & Mrs Steele
which list was unanimously approved by the Guild.

Secretary's Annual report Eighteen meetings have been held during the past year, with an average of seventeen in attendance.

Every meeting with the exception of two, have been spent with devotional exercises. We have a membership of thirty five, and many attend and are interested, <sup>that</sup> we hope to enroll as members in the near future.

We mourn the loss of one of our most faithful members Edith-Lowery who passed away July 31, 1912.
 During the past year we have expended $75. for retreating the interior of the Church and $10. for the Sunday School Room.

(25) Twenty five dollars was contributed toward the new furnace in church and $22.28 for a rug for the parsonage.

Several worthy families have been assisted and considerable amounts contributed to outside causes.

For several months the Guild has furnished the flowers for the pulpit.

At the meeting held Feb. 7, 1912 it was voted in place of a supper, that each member contribute $1. By such plan $29. was raised.

A Sale held jointly with the W. F. M. S. Dec. 4 1912 gave a total of $49.70

After expenses were deducted $69.07 were received by each society.

The greater portion of our time at each gathering has been devoted to sewing except our last meeting when the ladies enjoyed the talk by Mrs. Thos. Sykes of Central Village.

The increased interest and success of the Guild has ~~we think~~ been far greater than the members anticipated and may each one the coming year help to do a still greater and nobler work.

ladies that it be recorded on the minutes - and is as follows

To "The Guild"

I

The lovely Christmas basket
 Was a genuine surprise,
 When "Nurse" showed it to me
 I could scarce believe my eyes,
 I read the card tied to it
 And my heart with pleasure thrilled
 At the sweet and loving message
 Of my dear friends of the Guild.

II

The basket is so pretty
 And so Christmas-y and bright,
 That I gaze upon it often
 And it fills me with delight,
 - Believe me that I miss you That my thoughts are thus filled
 With the doings and the sayings
 Of the Ladies of the Guild.

III

And I thank you all sincerely
 For your loving thought of me
 May the New Year for my dear friend
 Very, very happy be,
 Yes, and in this coming New Year
 May it happily be willed
 That I take my place among you,
 All my dear friends of the Guild!
 Lovingly "Isabel H. Brown.

17 meetings have been held during the year with an average attendance of 16.

It was decided not to hold a fair as in the two previous years.

There has been some profit however from private sales of aprons.

An entertainment given
Dec. 4th by Mrs Slack
vocalist and Mrs Briery reader was a great success every way, from which we cleared $28.50

Gifts made by the Guild
during the year are as follows
Church pedestal for flowers $6.00 Five dozen Soup Spoons to

Monthly meeting $1.13

Santa Claus knit $9.71

Play ground back of church $25.00

The Guild still continues to furnish flowers each Sunday morning for pulpit.

We have remembered our members from time to time who were unable to meet with us, with flowers, plants, and letters of greeting.

We have now finished three years successful work of the Guild.

Our plans for the future are not complete, but we hope to extend our work not only along church lines but into the hearts and homes of those we have as yet not been able to reach.

Sincerely, Adelaide H. Wanger
Secretary.
